RULES OF COMPETITION

All valid 2017 UCI competition rules come into effect.

Every rider has to wear his/her national or international number.(color of number plate and digit in accordance with official UCI reglement). Should there be the case, that two riders on a Alpe-Adria event do have the same numbers, the rider from outer country has to put the prefix of his / her country in front of the number. (prefixes are specified below)

(I = Italy, A = Austria, H = Hungary, S = Slovenia, G = Germany)

Every rider must have a UCI conform sideplate with his/her number, properly attached to his/her bike.

SPD pedals are admitted from vintage 2004.

When using SPD pedals, the rider has to prove that he/she is able to get in and out at the pedals on his/her own, whenever an official requests this.

At every executed race, a daily ranking of every class has to be provided public and officially. It is mandatory to hand out a copy to every co-competitor.

After hang-up of the daily ranking, there is a protest time of 15 minutes. The day rankings in the according categories are binding to the final ranking.

All Alpe-Adria events are generally run with mixed motos.

Pro section rules:

If there is a pro-section available on the track, 17+ riders have to ride there. However, other categories are not permitted to ride on the pro section. (for exceptions see end of paragraph)

If it's decided during the team-manager-meeting that the pro-line is closed (weather conditions, rain,, wind and so on), this decision affects all riders – no free line choice pro/challenge for 17+!

Exceptions:

Verona – all categories ride the Challenge-Line due to SX conditions; Sopron – also Boys 15 – 16 have to ride the pro-line because of possible issues with the first turn on high speeds

ANNOUNCEMENT
ALPE-ADRIA- Championship 2017
ALPE-ADRIA BMX –CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP 2017

If a rider knows that he/she is not able to jump the proline, he is committed to dodge to the left or right border of the track and ensure that he isn't blocking the other riders.

If a rider intentionally prevents other riders from jumping the pro line, it is a break of rules and will be punished by the chief commissaire.

Registration und NOMINAL MONEY

Categories	amount in €
Boys – 8, Boys 9 -10, Boys 11 – 12, Boys 13 – 14, Women 17+ und Cruiser	€ 10,00
Boys 15 – 16 and Men 17+	€ 10,00
Open – Classes	€ 10,00

At every race, the team-manager needs to pre-sign all athletes until 3 days before official race-date. If that's not the case, there is still the possibility to register on raceday. For the higher amount of work, an additional fee as high as 5€ needs to be paid. The registration / sign-in / announcement of presence is done without exceptions just by the team manager. Pre-registered riders just have to pay if they are present on raceday.
